ABOUT THE AUTHOR 193

Introduction

This book contains 60 of the songs I wrote in between 2000 – 2002. I am constantly trying to get my lyrics made into songs, so that they can be shared and enjoyed by other people. Having had some of these lyrics made into songs for an album, and several of them now on compilations, I now share these 60 songs with you for the purpose of finding more interest in them and allowing many more people to enjoy my material.

I discovered I could write songs whilst managing Uju (<http://www.uju-music.com>), a talented musical artist and songwriter in her own rights. At the time, we needed songs for her to perform. I accepted the challenge and begun to write songs for her first album. During this period, I wrote over 100 songs and ended up falling in love with writing songs and creating melodies.

I hope you enjoy these lyrics and if you want further information on the associated melodies, or would like to use any of the material for commercial purposes, please contact me via email (s_blankson@hotmail.com). You can also purchase and hear Uju's CD and sample songs at <http://www.lulu.com/content/94889> or <http://www.cafepress.com/uju>.

The Songs

Most of these songs were written from a female perspective, as I originally wrote them all for a female artist to sing (Uju). They can, however be easily adapted to suit a male artist. I have arranged these beautiful songs into three categories; "Relationships", "Club and Dance" and "Other".

The "Relationship" category songs make up the majority and contain songs about love, romance, and heartbreak, whilst the "Club and Party" songs generally suit a faster tempo dance scene. Songs I could not fit into these two categories can be found in "Other". The songs in the "Other" category are unique in their content and style and cover topics ranging from “alcoholism” to “media control”.

I have attempted here to select a wide range of songs from my catalogue to suit every taste. You will find humour, wit, deep and meaningful lyrics as well as potential dance club anthems and tear jerking soulful ballads.
